RIVALS "THE SPOILERS."

The one rival to that great photograph production, "The Spoilers," has been filmed by the Selig Company. "THE NE'ER-DO-WELL" was also written by Rex Beach and a majority of the Selig stars who aided in making "The Spoilers" famous, appear in its worthy successor, "THE NE'ER-DO-WELL."

A special company of Selig stars, including Kathryn Williams, Wheeler Oakman, Eugene Besserer, Jack McDonald, Frank Clark, Harry Lonsdale and others, were escorted to Panama by William N. Selig in order that true atmosphere called for in Rex Beach's story might be filmed.

The operation of a Panama fire department is not the least interesting of the many scenes in and near the Canal Zone. In the opening reel of "THE NE'ER-DO-WELL," there is a hand-to-hand combat that is one of the most realistic ever presented in motion pictures.

At the Star Theatre on Oct. 5-6.

SUSPENDED STUDENT MAKES EXPLANATION

H. G. Weeks of Eldon, Mo., Says He Was "Goat" In Hazing Affair.

IS WELL SATISFIED

Has No Ill-Will Against University But Wants Vindication Before Students.

The following statement from H. G. Weeks, the Eldon, Mo., sophomore who has been suspended from the University because of his part in a hazing affair Friday night, has been received by the editor of the Missouriian. In asking that his statement be printed Weeks declares that he had no ill-will against the University, but that he wishes to explain his position to the student body.

The Officers' Club,
Columbia, Mo.,

October 1, 1916.

"To the editor of the Missouriian: I wish to make clear to the public just what the hazing was, for which I was fined in police court and suspended from the University. I have never done any paddling or mistreating of freshmen, nor have I been a member of a gang that did. Why then did I plead guilty to the charge in police court?"

Took Lozier's Advice.

"I acted on the advice of Mr. L. C. Lozier, student president, who took a friendly interest in my case and who is one of the few who really understands my situation. Mr. N. T. Gentry, a Columbia attorney, has told me that he could have cleared me of the charge in police court. Therefore I hereby ask for a trial before the Student Senate, not in order to get back in the University, but in order to justify myself before the eyes of the students.

"The night of the arrest after friends went my bond Mr. Lozier said to me, 'I believe, Weeks, that if I cannot get the court to dismiss the charge, the best thing to do is to plead guilty.'

"I objected, saying that really I would be confessing, when I was actually innocent. Then he said, 'If the authorities are determined to stick you, they will do it in spite of everything, and it would only make it harder for you if they convicted and it would bring you a great deal of notoriety, besides giving the University a black eye, if you take the case into court. Now, I can't promise to handle the authorities but I can assure you that Mr. Defoe will let you off.'

Says He Has No Kick.

"He misjudged Professor Defoe. I was suspended, I take it, for intent to haze, but here is what I did to deserve the fine.

"I started toward College avenue, intending to see a friend, when the fellows I was with ran back and stopped a freshman. Seeing something unusual I went back and saw that he had a gun. Naturally I prepared to make a graceful exit, as I saw that I had no business there. Just then, however, some of Columbia's highly efficient police force drove up and caught me. No Sophomore was closer than fifteen feet to a freshman, and the whole incident hardly lasted sixty seconds. I paid $25 for my twenty-five seconds on the scene. I am making no kick, whatever, for I was merely unlucky enough to be the goat."

Respectfully yours,

H. G. WEEKS.
